Chinese Reds Battle South Koreans In Fierce Struggle South Of 38th Parallel Line

Tokyo, Dec. 26 (AP)—South Korea and Chinese Communist troops tonight tangled in a fierce battle just south of the 38th Parallel and 28 air miles northeast of Seoul, the endangered South Korean capital.

Seoul itself was being rapidly emptied by citizens fleeing the gathering storm of combat.

The clash between Reds and Republic of Korea troops was fought in the Korangpo area, 10 miles east of Kaesong, transportation center on the route from Pyongyang to Seoul.

Republic of Korea (ROK) force headquarters described the action as "fierce." It also announced that Red patrols were sparring with United Nations forces all along the ROK-held section of the front lines.

Await Full Scale Attack

The U.S. Eighth Army, guarding the western end of the U.N. defense positions, also reported Communist patrols edging south of the parallel. The Communists were attempting to the enemy forces.

Tense U.N. forces continued to await a full scale attack by the enemy forces.

While Allied defenders regrouped for battle, new threats came from Red China's high command for all foreign troops to get out of the country entirely.

The U.N. Navy evacuated 105,000 American, South Korean, British and Puerto Rican troops and nearly 100,000 non-Communist North Korean civilians.

The northeast Korea port was devastated. An Army engineer estimated it would take six to eight months for the Communists to make it usable again.

MacArthur said the U.S. 10th Corps comprising five divisions had been redeployed by sea from the Hungnam beachhead "to a juncture" with the U.S. Eighth Army in Korea.

He did not explain his use of the word "juncture."

But Maj. Gen. Edward M. Almond, 10th Corps commander, said earlier the 10th Corps was moving into the old Pusan-Pohang beachhead in southeast Korea.

Expect New Offensive

General MacArthur said the Reds continued all preparations for an immediate offensive against the U.S. Eighth Army and its components spread across the waist of Korea.

Local Marine Returns From Korea For Xmas

One of the happiest Christmas in the county was observed by Mr. and Mrs. Robert Sanders, 24 Fourth street.

Their son, Pfc. Eugene P. Sanders, who was invalided out of Korea with frostbitten feet, arrived home in time for the holiday.

The young marine, who has served two years with the Marine corps, was transferred from his station at Subic bay to Korea on September 29. On December 5, while with the marines then fighting in the Chungjin reservoir area, he was hospitalized by his frozen feet.

Flown from Korea with other injured marines, he arrived at the Naval hospital in Philadelphia. There he was given a 30-day convalescent leave and sent home. He arrived at his home at 2:30 o'clock Sunday morning.

Not only did the marine get home for Christmas, but his feet are rapidly mending, he reported today, and he added that he is "walking better all the time."

PERMISSION TO SELL ELECTION HOUSE IS ASKED

The Adams county commissioners have petitioned the county court for permission to sell the election house property in Hamiltonban township. The property lies at the intersection of the Gettysburg-Fairfield, Orrtanna-Fairfield roads.

According to the petition and the accompanying agreement filed with the prothonotary, the commissioners plan to sell the property to Stanley P. Humphrey, near Fairfield.

In exchange for the strip of land, which contains 43 perches, Humphrey will move the present election house to a site about 200 yards north and east along the Orrtanna-Fairfield road, place the election house on a concrete foundation, install electric connections, apply two coats of paint and make such other repairs as may be necessary.

Cost of the work will be about (Continued on Page 2)

Crow Escapes Injury When Benefactor's Car Crashes

Dr. Roy W. Gifford discovered three patients instead of two when he was called to treat two Hanover area men Christmas night.

The men, George Brooke Long, Hanover R. 1, and Louis Houck, Hanover, were injured when Long's car went off the New Oxford-Bonnaville road at 7:49 o'clock Monday night and smashed into a house.

Persons at the scene of the accident wrapped the two men in several blankets to protect them from the cold and then took them to the hospital.

There Doctor Gifford unwrapped the blankets from Long, opened Long's mackinaw preparatory to removing it, and jumped back when a live crow sat up on Long's chest, blinked its eyes and croaked a greeting.

Despite the fact that Long had been thrown against the steering wheel of the car and suffered chest injuries, the crow, which he had placed in his coat to keep warm, was uninjured.

By SHIRLEY SARGENT

George walked quickly, shoulders hunched inside his worn wind-breaker. What was it dad had said? "When you're 14 the judge will let you come to live with me." Well, he was only 10, but he was on his way to live with dad. He was running away. That was for sure, George thought angrily, remembering Christmas.

"I'm awfully sorry, George," mom had said unhappily, "but with your brother sick and the doctor bills and all, I won't be able to give you a bicycle."

"Aw, mom, I didn't get one last year either because old Bud broke his arm."

And then mom had started to cry until he had said, "It's okay, don't worry."

But it wasn't okay. George shivered and poked his hands into his pockets as he hurried along the highway. Mom had given him a pair of new shoes and a cowboy hat for presents. Some Christmas! They hadn't had even a turkey. They had to spend the money for Bud's medicine. Dad, now, George's mouth curved in a grin, dad was going to give him a Shetland pony. Nobody knew he had seen dad last week.

"Sure wish you were going to be with me for Christmas, to see your Shetland pony," dad had talked fast-like, "and New Year's Day I could take you to the football game. Be fun, wouldn't it? But then you're happy with your mother."

Promises Kept

George stuck his thumb out, hoping to catch a ride. He had been happy, but then Bud got sick and Christmas had turned out to be just another day and he'd got to thinking that dad always kept his promises. The pony would be there waiting for him.

A motorcycle sputtered to a stop ahead of him. "Want a ride, kid?"

George gripped the man's leather jacket as they roared down the highway. At this rate he'd be at dad's in no time, if he could just hold on. It sure was cold! Cold and there wasn't any wood in the house for mom. Bud liked to be warm. The wood would be too heavy for mom to carry. She was thin and pale. "I'm not very strong," she had said, "it's a good thing I have you to depend on." The motorcycle lurched around a corner, skidding to a stop. George nearly fell off.

"End of the line, kid," the man helped him down. "It's getting dark, you'd better hurry home."

George plodded on. He felt uneasy with the dark settling about

Bud was all right. Mom wouldn't be home until six, but she had told George he could play outdoors, if he would check up on Bud once in a while.

He shivered. What if Bud got scared and got out of bed? Sometimes the little guy didn't use his head, George felt, worse and worse as he remembered how mom trusted him to take care of Bud.

Never Again

"Ride, son?" a man yelled at him. "I'm going to Nofax, if that'll help you."

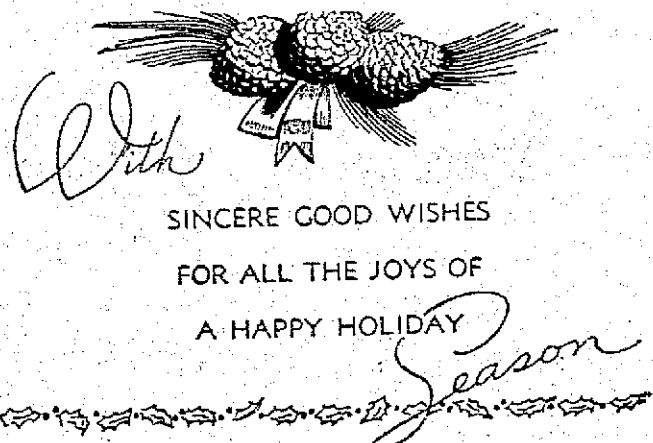

Nofax was where dad lived, where the pony was, near the football stadium. But George hesitated, thinking of Bud all alone and scared.

"Thanks, mister," he started toward the car slowly, then stopped and ran across the highway.

"Hey, where are you going?" the man ran after George, catching him by the shoulder.

George tried to twist away. "I changed my mind," he gasped, "I'm going back this way."

"I'll drive you there," the man hustled him into the car.

George relaxed as the car sped toward home, grateful that the man didn't ask questions. He could hardly wait to see mom and Bud.

"Made any New Year's resolutions?" the man asked.

"Yeah," George grinned at the understanding stranger. "I'm never going to run away again. That's for sure!"

Pope Extends Holy Year Through 1951

Vatican City, Dec. 26 (AP)—Roman Catholics throughout the world learned today they will be expected to increase their prayers—particularly prayers for peace of the world—to gain the benefits of the extension of Holy Year.

The papal bull extending Holy Year through 1951 for the world's Catholics, was signed by Pope Pius XII yesterday, Christmas Day, after the closing of the 1950 "Anno Santo." The bull, entitled "Per Annum Sacrum," was published today by L'Osservatore Romano, the Vatican newspaper.

As the 25th Holy Year of the church ended—in many ways it was the greatest jubilee in the history of the church—the pope faced a trying period which would be devoted largely to his continued crusade for peace.

CAGE TOURNEY AT JOHNSTOWN TOPS PROGRAM

Harrisburg, Dec. 26 (P)—A tournament between four unbeaten teams draws top billing in Pennsylvania schoolboy basketball during the Christmas week.

Farrell, Johnstown Catholic, Johnstown High and Williamsport early impressive marks into the second annual War Memorial tourney Wednesday and Thursday in Johnstown's spacious new War Memorial arena. Opening round billings sent the two Johnstown teams together and Farrell against Williamsport.

Farrell, with six straight victories, boasts one of the finest clubs in the huge Western Pennsylvania Interscholastic Athletic Association. Last year the Steelers were runners-up to Homestead, the state champion, for Class A honors in the WPIAL.

Williamsport, the defending District Four titlist, has won its first three games on a rugged independent schedule and stands a good chance of repeating last year's record.

The two Johnstown clubs have their most potent teams in recent years and are expected to hold their own against the invading powers. Johnstown High is touted as the best in District Six this year while the Catholic crimson crushers are shooting for the state title of the Pennsylvania Catholic Interscholastic Athletic Association.

Elsewhere it's a lull before the storm as many of the state's best quintets await the opening of conference play next week. However there are a handful of promising attractions on tap.

Outstanding Contests
Johnstown High will meet its third opponent in as many nights Friday when the Trojans entertain Pittsburgh Westinghouse, defending champion of the Steel City league and the only team to defeat Homestead this season.

Bethlehem's unbeaten Red Hurricane tops the field entered in the Lehigh Valley Invitational tourney this week. Bethlehem expects its toughest opposition to come from Allentown Catholic and Easton.

Pottstown's rampaging Trojans meet another tough test Wednesday night when they entertain Swyersville, last year's eastern representative in the PIAA Class A playoffs. The Trojans already have racked up seven straight conquests while Swyersville was upset only by Hazleton and its own alumni.

Chambersburg, the perennial South Penn Conference winner, takes its second crack at Altoona's slipping Mountain Lions, defending champions of District Six, and hopes to make it two in a row at Chambersburg tonight.

York's unbeaten champions of District Three hope to make it a clean sweep against Waynesboro of the South Penn. The Bearcats, ready to start defense of their two-year domination of the Central Penn league, easily won their first encounter with Waynesboro.

Other top games this week include:

Tuesday—Beaver Falls at Butler; New Castle at Ford City; Erie Tech at Warren, and Donora at Jeannette.

Wednesday—Monessen at Aliquippa and McKeesport at Aliquippa.

Sports Roundup

By HUGH FULLERTON, JR.

New York, Dec. 26 (P)—Unless this holiday week brings definite signs of more interest and $$$ there may be some sudden decisions to reorganize next winter's basketball programs. . . . For instance, the Utah team came here last week on a three-game tour, looking for the big payoff from the garden game against St. John's. . . . But the Tuesday crowd was only 7,200 and the Utes were lucky if they carried away more than their $3,000 guarantee. . . . Since the tour cost at least $5,000, they can hardly return unless they can get one of the profitable Saturday night spots. . . . For the same reason, Hank Thel took his Oklahoma A. and M. team to the west coast rather than play an early-week game in New York. . . . Of course, it isn't just basketball that's being hit. . . . Leo Seltzer, the roller derby boss, says he noted a drop in attendance at all sports throughout the country as soon as bad news began to come in from Korea. . . . "It's uncertainty that causes it," says Leo. "People began staying at home to listen to radios that hadn't been turned on for a year."

POP AT POPPA
Harry Markson isn't a guy to have an inflated idea of his importance as managing director of the International Boxing Club. . . . But if he was, his 11-year-old son would have defeated it the other day. . . . Harry was invited to appear on a television show originating from a local nightspot. . . . Excitedly he telephoned his wife to have the machine warmed up and ready for a view of the old man. . . . She complied, and about 30 seconds after Markson's face appeared on the screen the youngster switched to another station. . . . "I can see dad at home any time," he explained, "but I can only see Captain Video on television."

ONE-MINUTE SPORTS PAGE
Visiting basketball coaches are loud in their praise of the tall Long Island U. basketball team. Utah's Vadal Peterson says they should be ranked right behind Kentucky and UCLA's Johnny Wooden rates them as better than Bradley. . . . Ward Cuff, the old football giant, coached his Green Bay Catholic high school team to an undefeated season this year—without the "A" formation. Jimmy Dykes' explanation of one of the Athletics' difficulties last season: "We couldn't switch our outfielders around to play the hitter because the pitchers didn't know where they were throwing."

THREE BOXERS VOTED AWARDS BY MAGAZINE

New York, Dec. 26 (P)—Heavyweight Champ Ezzard Charles, welterweight king Ray Robinson and bantamweight titlist Vic Toweel of South Africa today were named for Ring magazine's outstanding awards.

Charles was picked as the "fighter of the year," by Nat Fleischer, editor of boxing's bible. Sugar Ray Robinson was honored with a special citation as "best all-around fighter in any division." Toweel, who dethroned Manuel Ortiz, was selected for the "progress of the year" trophy.

Rex Layne, the sturdy, young Lewiston, Utah, heavyweight who upset Jersey Joe Walcott, was runner-up to Toweel in the "progress" department.

Fleischer, in a copyright article in the February issue of Ring, wrote that he placed Robinson second to Charles "because the sum total of his influence on the boxing situation was not equal to that represented by Charles' surprisingly easy success against Joe Louis."

The editor cited Charles' meritorious war record and sincerity in pointing out that achievements outside the ring were important factors. In his annual ratings, Fleischer named Louis as the No. 1 contender despite a "mediocre showing" against Argentina's Cesar Brion. Behind Louis he picked Lee Savold as No. 2 and Joey Maxim, the light heavyweight champion, as No. 3.

All eight champions are recognized as tops in their divisions by Fleischer. In some years, Ring has listed the champion behind outstanding contenders, especially if the titleholder has been allergic to title defenses.

After analyzing boxing's ills and shortcomings, Fleischer advocated the "elimination of all hoodlums and their influence; more intelligent and more liberal matchmaking; encouragement of younger boxers and more intelligent and realistic evaluation of the hazards of television."

Despite his death following a knockout loss to Percy Bassett, Al (Sonnyboy) West was ranked sixth among the lights.
"He had a good record during 1950 and well deserved his ranking," said Fleischer.

SOUTH DEFEATS NORTH 14-9 IN FINAL MINUTE

Miami, Fla., Dec. 26 (P)—Vanderbilt's Dean Davidson plunged over in the final 45 seconds last night to give the South all-stars a 14 to 9 upset victory over the North in the Shrine's third annual charity football game in the Orange bowl.

The dying-minute touchdown climaxed a fine display of clean, hard, precision football witnessed by 39,132 fans.

The South, coached by Andy Gustafson of the University of Miami and Bobby Dodd of Georgia Tech, was forced to come from behind to turn back the northern team coached by Yale university's Herman Hickman.

Paced by John Ford's amazing passing and Davidson's spectacular running, the South scored before the first quarter was five minutes old. Mississippi's John Dettley plunged through center for the final yard.

Jim Stanton of Wake Forest tackled the North's Dick Gabriel of Lehigh behind his own goal line in the second period and the South held an 8-0 margin at halftime.

North Gets Safety
But in the third quarter the Army trio of Gil Stephenson, Jim Cain and Jack Martin, aided by magnificent line play, brought the North back into the ball game. Purdue's Jim Janosek blocked a punt by Pat Fields of Georgia on the 25 and the ball rolled into the end zone for a safety.

Minutes later the Army trio drove for a touchdown — with Martin plunging over from the six inch line on fourth down. Drake's Dick Stegert converted, putting the North in the lead, 9-8.

Twice in the final period the North's defensive line made goal line stands, but in the closing seconds Bishop Strickland of South Carolina rifled a low, flat pass to Duke's C. P. Youmans on the North's 23 yard line. The play was good for 39 yards. On the next play Davidson plunged over for the final score. Fields' conversion attempt was wide.

Ford, quarterback of Hardin-Simmons college, was voted by coaches and sports writers as the most valuable player on the field.

Army's Gil Stephenson, who averaged 2.3 yards per try in 12 tries, was voted the most valuable player on the North squad.

Runs Off Highway
An automobile operated by John Cole, 28, of Biglerville star route, collided with the car of Joseph A. Stremmel, 74, of Hanover, at 4:30 o'clock Saturday afternoon one mile north of Hampton on the York Springs-Hanover road, state police reported.

Police said Cole ran off the right side of the highway, and in attempting to get his car back on the road, lost control and sideswiped the Stremmel car. No one was injured. Damage to Cole's car was estimated at $80 and to Stremmel's automobile at $175.

New Oxford Mishap

Police said Robert F. Buntz, 25, of Littlestown R. 1, was the victim of a hit-run motorist at 11:10 p.m. Saturday night on the Emmitsburg road three miles south of Gettysburg. south of 38 and inside the Republic of Korea. It reported Chinese forces in strength only 28 miles from fast-emptying Seoul, the South Korean capital.

The Allied force after abandoning its last stronghold in North Korea had a new commander on the job.

Lt. Gen. Matthew B. Ridgway arrived by plane Monday afternoon from Washington via Tokyo. He succeeded Lt. Gen. Walton H. Walker, who was killed Saturday in a jeep accident.

"There isn't much to say now. I have to get to work," Ridgway said as he came down the plane ramp at a South Korean airport.

120 Mile Front
Ridgway, a paratrooper general in World War II, took over command as the Eighth Army in new positions along the border to South Korea was awaiting an imminent Communist offensive.

Chinese and Korean Reds, supplies and artillery were massed all along the front. Their patrols jabbed at numerous points along a 120 mile front stretching three-fourths of the way across Korea. They await only the signal to strike in force.

AP Correspondent Stan Swinton reported Ridgway had been given command of all troops in Korea. This included the U. S. 10th Corps, 105,000 strong.

The 10th Corps' evacuation was completed Sunday from Hungnam, 130 miles deep in North Korea, and most of the troops already were in the old Southeast Korean beachhead around Pusan and Pohang ports.

Red Issues Warning
The Red military leader, Chu Teh, warned U. N. troops to get out of Korea, the United States to pull its military forces out of Formosa, and demanded a seat for Red China in the United Nations.

The first Communist blow was expected to fall somewhere along the 38th parallel in Western or Central Korea where the Communist troops are massed in strength.

Chu, in a peeping broadcast heard in Tokyo by Kyodo News agency, did not say what Red China would do if the non-Communist nations supporting the Republic of Korea refused to leave.

But the Chinese and Red Korean masses swarming all along the Parallel 38 border to South Korea made his language clear.

The injured woman was treated for a broken right wrist and cuts on the face and head at West Side Osteopathic hospital, York, where she was taken by a passing motorist. A hospital attendant said her condition Monday was satisfactory.

Miss Williams' car went out of control, knocked down two telephone company poles and sideswiped a tree on the property of W. C. Grove, state police said. The Abbotstown woman was traveling west at the time of the accident.

Damage to her 1949 model car was estimated at $1,575 by state police.

Washington, Dec. 26 (P)—The air force is gearing its emergency mobilization program to a strength four times as powerful as that on hand before Korea.

Undersecretary John A. McCone said today in an interview that this applies clear across the board—to aircraft production, training of men, and bases for men and equipment. The four-fold size goal could be reached by late 1953 if ordered. The immediate program, to be completed in two years, calls for roughly doubling the number of air force groups, the number of men, and the number of bases in the United States.

The move toward the doubled air force already is obvious in plane orders; in putting World War II plane plants back into production; in reopening 25 bases since June, and disclosure that air force personnel soon will be more than double the pre-Korea strength of 412,000. Output of air force combat type planes already has risen to a rate of more than 150 a month from the pre-Korea rate of 110 a month and will be doubled by next December.

CAGE TOURNEY AT JOHNSTOWN TOPS PROGRAM

Harrisburg, Dec. 26 (AP)—A tournament between four unbeaten teams draws top billing in Pennsylvania schoolboy basketball during the Christmas week.

Parrell, Johnstown Catholic, Johnstown High and Williamsport carry impressive marks into the second annual War Memorial tourney Wednesday and Thursday in Johnstown's spacious new War Memorial arena. Opening round billings send the two Johnstown teams together and Parrell against Williamsport.

Parrell, with six straight victories, boasts one of the finest clubs in the huge Western Pennsylvania Interscholastic Athletic Association. Last year the Steelers were runners-up to Homestead, the state champion, for Class A honors in the WPIAL.

Williamsport, the defending District Four titlist, has won its first three games on a rugged independent schedule and stands a good chance of repeating last year's record.

The two Johnstown clubs have their most potent teams in recent years and are expected to hold their own against the invading powers. Johnstown High is touted as the best in District Six this year while the Catholic crimson crushers are shooting for the state title of the Pennsylvania Catholic Interscholastic Athletic Association.

Elsewhere it's a lull before the storm as many of the state's best quintets await the opening of conference play next week. However there are a handful of promising attractions on tap.

Outstanding Contests
Johnstown High will meet its third opponent in as many nights Friday when the Trojans entertain Pittsburgh Westinghouse, defending champion of the Steel City league and the only team to defeat Homestead this season.

Bethlehem's unbeaten Red Hurricane tops the field entered in the Lehigh Valley Invitational tourney this week. Bethlehem expects its toughest opposition to come from Allentown Catholic and Easton.

Pottstown's rampaging Trojans meet another tough test Wednesday night when they entertain Swoyersville, last year's eastern representative in the PIAA Class A playoffs. The Trojans already have racked up seven straight conquests while Swoyersville was upset only by Hazleton and its own alumni.

Chambersburg, the perennial South Penn Conference winner, takes its second crack at Altoona's slipping Mountain Lions, defending champions of District Six, and hopes to make it two in a row at Chambersburg tonight.

York's unbeaten champions of District Three hope to make it a clean sweep against Waynesboro of the South Penn. The Bearcats, ready to start defense of their two-year domination of the Central Penn league, easily won their first encounter with Waynesboro.

Other top games this week include:
Tuesday—Beaver Falls at Butler; New Castle at Ford City; Erie Tech at Warren, and Donora at Jeanette.

Wednesday—Monessen at Aliquippa and McKeesport at Aliquippa.

Sports Roundup

By HUGH FULLERTON, JR.

New York, Dec. 26 (AP)—Unless this holiday week brings definite signs of more interest and $$$ there may be some sudden decisions to reorganize next winter's basketball programs. . . . For instance, the Utah team came here last week on a three-game tour, looking for the big payoff from the garden game against St. John's. . . . But the Tuesday crowd was only 7,200 and the Utes were lucky if they carried away more than their $3,000 guarantee. . . . Since the tour cost at least $5,000, they can hardly return unless they can get one of the profitable Saturday night spots. . . . For the same reason, Hank Iba took his Oklahoma A. and M. team to the West coast rather than play an early-week game in New York. . . . Of course, it isn't just basketball that's being hit. . . . Leo Seltzer, the roller derby boss, says he noted a drop in attendance at all sports throughout the country as soon as bad news began to come in from Korea. . . . "It's uncertainty that causes it," says Leo. "People began staying at home to listen to radios that hadn't been turned on for a year."

POP AT POPPA

Harry Markson isn't a guy to have an inflated idea of his importance as managing director of the International Boxing club. . . . But if he was, his 11-year-old son would have deflated it the other day. . . . Harry was invited to appear on a television show originating from a local nightspot. . . . Excitedly he telephoned his wife to have the machine warmed up and ready for a view of the old man. . . . She complied, and about 30 seconds after Markson's face appeared on the screen the youngster switched to another station. . . . "I can see dad at home any time," he explained, "but I can only see Captain Video on television."

ONE-MINUTE SPORTS PAGE

Visiting basketball coaches are loud in their praise of the tall Long Island U. basketball team. Utah's Vadal Peterson says they should be ranked right behind Kentucky and UCLA's Johnny Wooden rates them as better than Bradley. . . . Ward Cuff, the old football giant, coached his Green Bay Catholic high school team to an undefeated season this year—without the "A" formation—Jimmy Dykes' explanation of one of the Athletics' difficulties last season: "We couldn't switch our outfielders around to play the hitter because the pitchers didn't know where they were throwing."

THREE BOXERS VOTED AWARDS BY MAGAZINE

New York, Dec. 26 (AP)—Heavyweight Champ Ezzard Charles, welterweight king Ray Robinson and bantamweight titlist Vic Toweel of South Africa today were named for Ring magazine's outstanding awards.

Charles was picked as the "fighter of the year," by Nat Fleischer, editor of boxing's bible, Sugar Ray Robinson was honored with a special citation as "best all-around fighter in any division." Toweel, who dethroned Manuel Ortiz, was selected for the "progress of the year" trophy.

Rex Layne, the sturdy, young Lewiston, Utah, heavyweight who upset Jersey Joe Walcott, was runner-up to Toweel in the "progress" department.

Fleischer, in a copyright article in the February issue of Ring, wrote that he placed Robinson second to Charles "because the sum total of his influence on the boxing situation was not equal to that represented by Charles' surprisingly easy success against Joe Louis."

The editor cited Charles' meritorious war record and sincerity in pointing out that achievements outside the ring were important factors.

In his annual ratings, Fleischer named Louis as the No. 1 contender despite a "mediocre showing" against Argentina's Cesar Brion. Behind Louis he picked Lee Savold as No. 2 and Joey Maxim, the light heavyweight champion, as No. 3.

All eight champions are recognized as tops in their divisions by Fleischer. In some years, Ring has listed the champion behind outstanding contenders, especially if the titleholder has been allergic to title defenses.

After analyzing boxing's ills and shortcomings, Fleischer advocated the "elimination of all hoodlums and their influence; more intelligent and more liberal matchmaking; encouragement of younger boxers and more intelligent and realistic evaluation of the hazards of television."

Despite his death following a knockout loss to Percy Bassett, Al (Sonnyboy) West was ranked sixth among the lights.

"He had a good record during 1950 and well deserved his ranking," said Fleischer.

SOUTH DEFEATS NORTH 14-9 IN FINAL MINUTE

Miami, Fla., Dec. 26 (AP)—Vanderbilt's Dean Davidson plunged over in the final 45 seconds last night to give the South all-stars a 14 to 9 upset victory over the North in the Shrine's third annual charity football game in the Orange bowl.

The dying-minute touchdown climaxed a fine display of clean, hard, precision football witnessed by 39,132 fans.

The South, coached by Andy Gustafson of the University of Miami and Bobby Dodd of Georgia Tech, was forced to come from behind to turn back the northern team coached by Yale university's Herman Hickman.

Paced by John Ford's amazing passing and Davidson's spectacular running, the South scored before the first quarter was five minutes old. Mississippi's John Dettley plunged through center for the final yard.

Jim Stanton of Wake Forest tackled the North's Dick Gabriel of Lehigh behind his own goal line in the second period and the South held an 8-0 margin at halftime.

North Gets Safety

But in the third quarter the Army trio of Gil Stephenson, Jim Cain and Jack Martin, aided by magnificent line play, brought the North back into the ball game. Purdue's Jim Janosek blocked a punt by Pat Fields of Georgia on the 25 and the ball rolled into the end zone for a safety.

Minutes later the Army trio drove for a touchdown — with Martin plunging over from the six inch line on fourth down. Drake's Dick Steere converted, putting the North in the lead, 9-8.

Twice in the final period the North's defensive line made goal line stands, but in the closing seconds Bishop Strickland of South Carolina rifled a low, flat pass to Duke's C. P. Youmans on the North's two yard line. The play was good for 39 yards. On the next play Davidson plunged over for the final score. Fields' conversion attempt was wide.

Ford, quarterback of Hardin-Simmons college, was voted by coaches and sports writers as the most valuable player on the field.

Army's Gil Stephenson, who averaged 2.3 yards per try in 12 tries, was voted the most valuable player on the North squad.

Police said Robert E. Buntz, 25, of Littlestown R. 1, was the victim of a hit-run motorist at 11:10 p.m. Saturday night on the Emmitsburg road three miles south of Gettysburg. Buntz was driving north and the other car was proceeding south, police said. Buntz reported that he saw the other car approaching and swerved but was unable to avoid being sideswiped. south of 38 and inside the Republic of Korea. It reported Chinese forces in strength only 28 miles from fast-emptying Seoul, the South Korean capital.

The Allied force after abandoning its last stronghold in North Korea had a new commander on the job.

Lt. Gen. Matthew B. Ridgway arrived by plane Monday afternoon from Washington via Tokyo. He succeeded Lt. Gen. Walton H. Walker, who was killed Saturday in a jeep accident.

"There isn't much to say now. I have to get to work," Ridgway said as he came down the plane ramp at a South Korean airport.

120 Mile Front

Ridgway, a paratroop general in World War II, took over command as the Eighth Army in new positions along the border to South Korea was awaiting an imminent Communist offensive.

Chinese and Korean Reds, supplies and artillery were massed all along the front. Their patrols jabbed at numerous points along a 120 mile front stretching three-fourths of the way across Korea. They await only the signal to strike in force.

AP Correspondent Stan Swinton reported Ridgway had been given command of all troops in Korea. This included the U. S. 10th Corps, 105,000 strong.

The 10th Corps' evacuation was completed Sunday from Hungnam, 130 miles deep in North Korea, and most of the troops already were in the old Southeast Korean beachhead around Pusan and Pohang ports.

Red Issues Warning

The Red military leader, Chu Teh, warned U. N. troops to get out of Korea, the United States to pull its military forces out of Formosa, and demanded a seat for Red China in the United Nations.

The first Communist blow was expected to fall somewhere along the 38th parallel in Western or Central Korea where the Communist troops are massed in strength.

Chu, in a peeping broadcast heard in Tokyo by Kyodo News agency, did not say what Red China would do if the non-Communist nations supporting the Republic of Korea refused to leave.

But the Chinese and Red Korean masses swarming all along the Parallel 38 border to South Korea made his language clear.

Accepts Post With Game Commission

The Pennsylvania Game commission this week appointed Miss Bettie M. Tierney, East Berlin, as a special agent of the Pennsylvania Game commission for the purpose of live-trapping game under the direction of District Game Protector John Spahr, Adams county district, for the purpose of redistribution.

Miss Tierney, whose family permits the use of their land for a game propagation area, succeeds as special agent her father, the late Augustine J. Tierney, who held this position for several years prior to his death on October 5.

She will have as her assistant Sherman Eisenhart, East Berlin, at the advice of Mr. Spahr.

Woman Injured In Saturday Accident

Ruth T. Williams, 35, of Abbotstown, was injured and her car was demolished in an accident at 10 p.m. Saturday at the Lincoln highway-East Berlin road intersection in West Manchester township, York county.

The injured woman was treated for a broken right wrist and cuts on the face and head at West Side Osteopathic hospital, York, where she was taken by a passing motorist. A hospital attendant said her condition Monday was satisfactory.

Miss Williams' car went out of control, knocked down two telephone company poles and sideswiped a tree on the property of W. C. Grove, state police said. The Abbotstown woman was traveling west at the time of the accident.

Damage to her 1949 model car was estimated at $1,575 by state police.

USAF Strength To Be Quadrupled

Washington, Dec. 26 (AP)—The air force is gearing its emergency mobilization program to a strength four times as powerful as that on hand before Korea.

Undersecretary John A. McCone said today in an interview that this applies clear across the board—to aircraft production, training of men, and bases for men and equipment.

The four-fold size goal could be reached by late 1953 if ordered. The immediate program, to be completed in two years, calls for roughly doubling the number of air force groups, the number of men, and the number of bases in the United States.

The move toward the doubled air force already is obvious in plane orders; in putting World War II plane plants back into production; in reopening 25 bases since June, and disclosure that air force personnel soon will be more than double the pre-Korea strength of 412,000.

Output of air force combat type planes already has risen to a rate of more than 150 a month from the pre-Korea rate of 110 a month and will be doubled by next December.

Pope Extends Holy
Year Through 1951

Vatican City, Dec. 26 (AP)—Roman Catholics throughout the world learned today they will be expected to increase their prayers—particularly prayers for peace of the world—to gain the benefits of the extension of Holy Year.

The papal bull extending Holy Year through 1951 for the world's Catholics, was signed by Pope Pius XII yesterday, Christmas Day, after the closing of the 1950 "Anno Santo." The bull, entitled "Per Annum Sacrum" was published today by L'Osservatore Romano, the Vatican newspaper.

As the 25th Holy Year of the church ended—in many ways it was the greatest jubilee in the history of the church—the pope faced a trying period which would be devoted largely to his continued crusade for peace.

SCOUR BRITAIN
FOR OLD STONE

London, Dec. 26 (AP)—Border road-blocks divided England and Scotland today as Scotland Yard and police pressed a nationwide search for Britain's priceless Stone of Scone—stolen from Westminster Abbey Christmas Day.

Working on the theory that extreme Scottish nationalists were behind the theft of the flat, rectangular stone on which British and Scottish kings have been crowned since the days of the Celts, police in England's northern counties searched automobiles heading north.

The historic royal symbol was sneaked out of the dusty old abbey in the darkness of early morning. The thieves broke a large splinter off one leg of the ancient wooden coronation throne, itself a priceless national possession, when they dragged the 336-pound slab from its shelf under the seat.

Police surmised the thieves attended a Christmas Eve service in the abbey, concealed themselves in a side chapel, then removed the stone. So skillful was their get-away that detectives and police were without a clue after an intensive day's hunt.

Today's Talk

By GEORGE MATTHEWS ADAMS

DON'T WANT TOO LONG

Our earliest wants come to us in youth. Perhaps it is no more than a kite, a sled, a balloon, or the highest stunts in town. Other boys had them but some of us just looked on and passed up the thrill. Years keep rolling on, and with them our wants. Some of them have been fulfilled, but many of them have faded from us—for lack of action.

Benjamin Franklin wanted a whistle, when a youth, and so bought one, but discovered later he had paid too much for it. We can all do that, so it is well to weigh our desire for things—but not for too long or our anticipated joy may have died away when we finally make our decision to satisfy that want.

I once knew of a man who had gained great wealth by middle life, and so wanted about him the evidences of that wealth like fine paintings, books and rare tapestries. But his man soon discovered he had neither knowledge nor love of these things, so he merely spent money for them, but could gain no enjoyment therefrom. Hand he loved them in his youth, he would have appreciated them when able to purchase them.

It never pays to wait too long to enjoy the things that feed the mind and spirit. As a boy I always dreamed of the time when I might own little island of my own. That opportunity came to me many years ago, and although it meant saving and sacrifice at the time I have never regretted its purchase. To date, I have had twenty beautiful summers upon it and some day others will unite their joy with mine over its ownership.

Don't wait too long to anchor a few friends to you. They may mean your spiritual salvation later in life, when many of life's values have lost their glow. I have just started to study the stars. Always admiring the great heaven, I wonder why I never took to translating it so that I might the better appreciate its significance? Too many men wait too long for a vacation that they want so greatly. A friend of mine, a United States Senator, once wrote me that he would give almost anything for a vacation. Now he has it with a broken body. Don't wait too long. How you will hanker for what you want when you can no longer have it, or enjoy it!

Tomorrow Mr. Adams will talk on the subject: "On Letting Things Pass"

Just Folks

By EDGAR A. GUEST

DAY AFTER
Knees today are rough and sore;
That's from playing on the floor.
Blistered thumbs no salve can ease.
That's from winding toys with keys.
Tired this morning! With a yawn:
"Yes. They had me up at dawn."

How that bump upon the brow?
Don't recall exactly now.
Must have happened, truth to tell
One of several times I fell
Playing football in the yard.
That boy tackles well, and hard.

Foolish at my age to try
Things like that, they say, am I.
Should know better. With a grin
This I tell them: "Rub it in!
Soid me now, but if I'm here
I shall do the same next year."

SEND CHRISTMAS CARD TO DONNA

Utica, N. Y., Dec. 26 (AP)—Little Donna Pronto wants some Christmas cards—even old ones.

Donna's Santa Claus is the mailman, Henry "Dutch" Van Der Lann. The five-year-old child is suffering from a rare spinal condition condition, spina bifida, that has kept her in bed since birth. In the same bedroom is her 18-month-old brother, Karl, with the same affliction.

To Donna, Christmas cards are the joy of life. She watches for her mailman and his greeting: "Don't worry, little darling, I've got something for you."

And if there is no card in the mail "Dutch" usually supplies one, addressed to Donna at 23 Gillmore Village, Utica.

Almost No Hope
Spina bifida is a congenital malformation in which the spinal column is cleft at the lower portion and membranes project as an elastic swelling. For those who survive with the disease, doctors have almost no hope of cure or improvement.

The Prontos' doctor said of their case: "There is absolutely no future. Of course, there is always hope something will be discovered, but it is terribly slim."

"We don't want sympathy," Mrs. Charles Pronto, Jr., the children's mother, said. "We just want Donna to be happy. You see, she's getting worse every day. I would like to have people send her little cards, just so she will get some mail each day."

Donna has asked for a bicycle—a two-wheeler.

"Maybe next year, darling," her mother said.

COFFEE "PILLS" MAY COME NEXT

Chicago (AP)—"How will you have your coffee this morning, dear? One pill or two?"

"Two, please," says the husband. His wife drops two coffee pills into his cup, then adds hot water.

The pill is an extract of coffee, inside a capsule to keep it fresh. The tasteless, quick-dissolving capsule is an overcoat to guard the coffee against oxygen.

As yet the coffee-in-an-overcoat is just an idea, one of dozens being developed at the Armour Research Foundation of Illinois Institute of Technology. It comes from Erik Nielson, a coffee-loving researcher in the chemistry and chemical engineering department.

Nielson blends his own coffee at home, and makes coffee at the office for fellow workers in the department headed by Clark E. Thorp. This department is an idea factory.

The coffee pills are one of the ideas that passed careful screening and now are undergoing development.

Reading township, sold to Lewis H. and Lucinda M. King, same place, a property in that township.

Norman G. Nelson A. and Samuel L. Wolf, Jr., executors of the will of Annie M. Wolf, late of Gettysburg, sold to Marie Agnes Wolf, Hamilton township, three properties totalling 160 acres in Hamilton township.

Peter J. and Doris N. Hocken-smith, Conewago township, sold to Lavere B. and Phyllis A. Hocken-smith, same place, a property in Brushtown.

Walter Edward and Edna Grace Toddes, Cumberland township, sold to Alfred and Anna O. Sorlie, Gettysburg R. D., a property in Cumberland township.

Edmund F. and Christine E. Rosensteel, Gettysburg, sold to H. E. and Grace Kuykendall, same place, a property on Baltimore street.

Anna and Daniel P. Reilly, Reseda, Calif., sold to Roy C. and E. May Keller, Ottantana, a property in Ottantana.

Gilbert B. and Mary J. Hartzell, Franklin township, sold to Harry J. Hartzell, Jr., Butler township, a property in Butler township.

Merwyn A. and Evelyn R. Keil-holtz, Gettysburg R. D., sold to Luther A. and Janet I. Boyd, Gettysburg, a property in Straban township.

Herbert S. and Louette Kennedy, Tyrone township, sold to Cecil J. and Ruth Olinger, same place, a one acre property in that township.

Richard N. and Anna M. Smith, McSherrystown, sold to Pauline Groff, Mt. Pleasant township, a property in McSherrystown.

Emory E. Rafensperger, Butler township, sold to James "H. and Martha K. Sandoe, same place, an eight acre property in that township.

Lawrence D., Jr., and Susan Cruze, Washington, D. C., sold to John W. Eyler, Gettysburg R. 1, an eight acre property in Cumberland township.

Robert J. and Sara J. Shearer, Huntingtown township, sold to Bryan J. and M. Miriam Griffie, same place, a five acre property in that township.

Ralph W. and Elizabeth A. Go-brecht, Hanover, sold to Charles W. and Florice P. Orem, Mt. Pleasant township, a 31 acre property in Mt. Pleasant township.

York Springs—About 100 children of the local grade school participated in a seasonal operetta entitled "Merry Christmas, Mr. Snowman," Wednesday evening at the community fire hall. The entire first six grades contributed to the presentation with songs, recitations and drama.

A missionary service was conducted last Sunday morning at the Church of God of which the Rev. Donald G. Roemer is pastor, with a "Christ's Birthday Offering" received for the work of mission fields.

Local relatives have received word that Charles G. Middleton, Jr. husband of the former Miss Helen Guise, this place, has been promoted to captain. The word came from his post in Japan where he has been for some time.

Local Girl Scouts sold fancy articles which they made, suitable for Christmas tree ornaments, and also homemade candy at a booth at a local store Friday evening.

A Christmas party was given the young people of the local Lutheran church at the church building on Sunday evening.

Another local pre-Christmas observance was the cantata, "The Glory of Christmas," presented Sunday evening for the public at the local Methodist church.

Freshly roasted coffee contains certain fragrant oils which are easily destroyed by oxygen. "The secret" would be taken out at low temperature, and covered with a blanket of nitrogen or other inert gas to prevent contact with oxygen," Thorp said. "There are some problems to be solved but none of these seems insuperable."

The pills could be packed in jars or wax paper envelopes, for easy distribution.

Other ideas, of some 200 on the list, include plastics made from boron, plastic magnets, infra-red detectors, better dentifrices, liquid ozone and dust analyses to avoid underground explosions. Others went on the secret list because of possible military usefulness.

STARRY: In sad but loving remembrance of our dear husband and father, George E. Starry, who departed life two years ago today, Dec. 26, 1948.

"A precious one from us is gone
A voice we loved is stilled.
A place is vacant in our home
Which never can be filled.
God in His wisdom has recalled
The boon His love had given
And though the body slumbers here
The soul is safe in heaven.

It seems as if our hearts would break,
With our unuttered grief.
Yet God in mercy gave this thought
Which came to our relief."

Altar flowers for the Christmas season at St. Joseph's Catholic church were placed in memory of Miss M. Bell Rowe, by Miss Annabell Hartman and of Mrs. Zouire Hyder Wenz by her daughter, Mrs. George Ackerman, St. Petersburg, Fla.

The Luther League of the Lutheran church is sponsoring a Young Peoples' party and dance at the parish hall Friday night.

"I Love You Truly" and "The Lord's Prayer," which was sung at the end of the ceremony. The traditional wedding marches from Wagner and Mendelssohn were used.

A reception with 100 guests present was served immediately following the ceremony in the Sunday school room of the church. The bride and groom then left on a ten-day wedding trip to Florida. Upon their return they will reside at the home of the groom's parents near New Oxford.

NATION COUNTS 664 HOLIDAY TRAGIC DEATHS

(By The Associated Press)

The nation counted a staggering death toll of 664 today from violent accidents over the three-day Christmas holiday.

Traffic fatalities soared to above 500, the highest since the all-time record of 555 in 1936. Mishaps on the highways—many ice-coated and others made slippery by freshly fallen snow—killed 515 persons. That was more than 100 above the 1949 Christmas holiday toll.

Accidents from miscellaneous causes—fires, drownings, falls, etc.—took an additional 149 lives. The grim total, one of the largest for any three-day holiday period, covered the 73 hours from 6 p.m. Friday to last midnight. Last year's total for the Christmas holiday was 580, including 167 in a variety of accidents.

Far Above Estimate

The traffic toll was far above the National Safety Council's estimate of 440, which was the highest it ever had predicted for the extended Christmas holiday. It more than doubled the number killed in motor accidents over a similar period December 8 to 11. In that period, an Associated Press survey showed 245 traffic fatalities, equivalent to 75 a day.

The council figures show 28,020 traffic deaths in the first 10 months this year, equivalent to 92 a day for the 304 days. They however, included delayed deaths—not a spot survey. The holiday toll averaged approximately 156 a day.

Los Angeles Toll Heavy California, Texas, New York and Illinois led the nation in accidental deaths. There were more than 1,000 auto mishaps in Los Angeles alone, with a death toll of 11 and 900 injured. Police arrested 362 drunken drivers.

There were tragedies from other accidents. Six elderly men perished last night in a fire in a four-story hotel near the downtown district of Buffalo, N. Y. In Paris, Tex., four small children drowned when an old boat hit a sandbar and sank in the Red river. The children had gone to the river on a Christmas afternoon outing.

Deaths by states, traffic and miscellaneous included New Jersey 11-1; New York 27-21; Ohio, 20-6; Pennsylvania 22-2; West Virginia 3-1.

Card of Thanks 2

HANES: I wish to thank all my friends and neighbors for their kindness during the illness and death of my husband. Also for the many cards of sympathy received. Mrs. Charles Hanes

In Memoriam 3

STARRY: In sad but loving remembrance of our dear husband and father, George E. Starry, who departed life two years ago today, Dec. 26, 1948.

"A precious one from us is gone
A voice we loved is stilled.
A place is vacant in our home
Which never can be filled.
God in His wisdom has recalled
The boon His love had given
And though the body slumbers here
The soul is safe in heaven.

It seems as if our hearts would break,
With our unuttered grief.
Yet God in mercy gave this thought
Which came to our relief."

Emmitsburg

SERVICES ARE WELL ATTENDED

The midnight services on Christmas Eve at the Lutheran and Catholic churches in Emmitsburg were attended by the largest congregations in years.

A solemn high mass was celebrated in St. Joseph's Catholic church with the choir singing special Christmas music as arranged by Mrs. Euphemia Rotering, organist. The celebrant was the Rev. Michael O'Brien with Rev. Francis Stauble as deacon and Rev. John Sullivan as sub-deacon. Three masses were held on Christmas Day.

The annual traditional candle-lighting ceremony with devotions conducted by the pastor, Rev. Philip Bower, and special Christmas music by the Chapel choir directed by Mrs. Clarence E. Bartholomew was held at Elias Evangelical Lutheran church from 11 p.m. to midnight. Mrs. Bartholomew sang Adams' "O Holy Night" and Mrs. John Birkland and Mrs. Bartholomew sang "Away in a Manger." At the candlelighting ceremony, the pastor lit the candle on the altar and every worshiper came to the altar and received a candle which was lighted at the chancel candles. When all had come to the altar and received light, the congregation joined in the Apostles' Creed, which was followed by the Lord's Prayer in unison, closing with the lighted candles high and the singing of "Joy to the World the Lord Is Come." Miss Ruth Shuff was the organist for the service playing appropriate preludes and postludes to the service and a meditation on the chimes.

Dr. and Mrs. David L. Beegle, Nancy and John, had as their dinner guests Sunday, Mrs. Minnie E. Bream, Mr. and Mrs. Glenn L. Bream and children, Jean, Joe and Glen, all of Gettysburg; Dr. Irvin George, Seattle, Wash.; Mrs. F. G. Justin and children, Barbara and Glenn, or Philadelphia. Dr. and Mrs. Beegle and family motored to Bedford on Christmas Day to spend the day with Dr. Beegle's mother.

The following infants were received into the church by the sacrament of holy baptism at Elias Evangelical Lutheran church Sunday: Dale Alan, son of Mr. and Mrs. Murray E. Valentine; Deborah Ann, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel S. McNair; and Larry Ralph, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jeremiah W. Snyder.

Altar flowers for the Christmas season at Elias Evangelical Lutheran church were placed in memory of Miss M. Bell Rowe, by Miss Annabell Hartman and of Mrs. Zouire Hyder Wentz by her daughter, Mrs. George Ackerman, St. Petersburg, Fla.

The Luther League of the Lutheran church is sponsoring a Young Peoples' party and dance at the parish hall Friday night.

The women's Bible class of the Lutheran church distributed 15 baskets of fruit to sick and aged members for Christmas. Mrs. George Eyster is the class teacher. Members of the class assisting her were Miss Grace Rowe and Miss Charlotte Miller.

Miss Phyllis M. Bower of Hagerstown spent Sunday and Christmas day with her parents, Rev. and Mrs. Philip Bower.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Maxwell and son, Kenneth, and Mr. and Mrs. Edward Combs called Saturday at the home of Rev. and Mrs. Philip Bower.

Pfc. Charles Long on furlough is spending Christmas at home with Mr. and Mrs. Morris Zentz.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Saylor spent last Sunday in Washington with friends.

The sound film "The Littlest Angel" was shown in the Lutheran parish hall to about 40 children and 25 adults.

The Emmitsburg community Christmas party sponsored by the Lions club held Saturday was attended by approximately 800 children and almost as many adults. Around 500 free lunches were served at the fire hall at noon and 750 boxes of candy and oranges were distributed by Santa to the children at the square. It was really a great and good time party, enjoyed by the adults as well as the children.

Out Of The Past

From the Files of the Star and Sentinel and
The Gettysburg Times

FIFTY YEARS AGO

Annual Masonic Banquet: Thursday was the beginning of the Masonic year A.L. 5901, and throughout the world it was celebrated by Free Masons as the anniversary of their patron saint, St. John the Evangelist. In Gettysburg, Good Samaritan Lodge No. 336, F. and A. M. held a sumptuous banquet at Hotel Gettysburg, which was attended by one hundred and two of the brethren.

W. C. Sheely, Esq., acted as toast master. The following gave responses: W. L. Flemming, J. L. Kendeheart, Dr. J. W. C. O'Neal, G. M. Walter, Dr. T. C. Billheimer, W. T. Ziegler, C. S. Duncan, G. J. Benner, Calvin Hamilton, Rev. E. E. Blint, Major Lewis E. Belter, Rev. Dr. Charles A. Stock, John A. Sheely and Rev. Stanley Billheimer.

Wedding Bells: The home of Dr. and Mrs. L. S. Sieber, West Middle street, was prettily decorated with evergreens, holly, palms, roses and carnations Tuesday, for the marriage at noon of their eldest daughter, Miss Anna Gertrude Sieber, to Professor Herbert Baldwin Moyer, of Norristown. The wedding took place before a number of friends and relatives.

The wedding marches were played by Miss Ida Wisotzky. The bridal party entered the parlor in the following order: Mrs. J. Today's Talk

By GEORGE MATTHEWS ADAMS

DON'T WANT TOO LONG

Our earliest wants come to us in youth. Perhaps it is no more than a kite, a sled, a balloon, or the high-stilts in town. Other boys had them but some of us just looked on and passed up the thrill. Years keep rolling on, and with them our wants. Some of them have been fulfilled, but many of them have faded from us—for lack of action.

Benjamin Franklin wanted a whistle, when a youth, and so bought one, but discovered later he had paid too much for it. We can all do that, so it is well to weigh our desire for things—but not for too long or our anticipated joy may have died away when we finally make our decision to satisfy that want.

I once knew of a man who had gained great wealth by middle life, and so wanted about him the evidences of that wealth like fine paintings, books and rare tapestries. But his man soon discovered he had neither knowledge nor love of these things, so he merely spent money for them, but could gain no enjoyment therefrom. Had he loved them in his youth, he would have appreciated them when able to purchase them.

He never pays to wait too long to enjoy the things that feed the mind and spirit. As a boy I always dreamed of the time when I might own little island of my own. That opportunity came to me many years ago, and although it meant saving and sacrifice at the time I have never regretted its purchase. To date, I have had twenty beautiful summers upon it and some day others will unite their joy with mine over its ownership.

Don't wait too long to anchor a few friends to you. They may mean your spiritual salvation later in life, when many of life's values have lost their glow. I have just started to study the stars. Always admiring the great heaven, I wonder why I never took to translating it so that I might the better appreciate its significance? Too many men wait too long for a vacation that they want so greatly. A friend of mine, a United States Senator, once wrote me that he would give almost anything for a vacation. Now he has it with a broken body. Don't wait too long. How you will hanker for what you want when you can no longer have it, or enjoy it!

Tomorrow Mr. Adams will talk on the subject: "On Letting Things Pass"

Just Folks

By EDGAR A. GUEST

DAY AFTER
Knees today are rough and sore; That's from playing on the floor. Blistered thumbs no salve can ease. That's from winding toys with keys. Tired this morning! With a yawn: "Yes. They had me up at dawn."

How that bump upon the brow? Don't recall exactly now. Must have happened, truth to tell. One of several times I fell. Playing football in the yard. That boy tackles well, and hard.

Foolish at my age to try Things like that, they say, am I. Should know better. With a grin I tell them: "Rub it in! Soid me now, but if I'm here I shall do the same next year."

Heart Attack Fatal

To Walter Damrosch

New York, Dec. 26 (AP)—Walter Damrosch, conductor and composer for more than half a century, died of a heart attack on Friday at the age of 88. Except for household help, he was alone in his three-story Brownstone home east of Central Park.

Millions of American school children—now adults—learned to love music from the stocky, white-haired artist who came out of retirement in 1927 to begin a new career on radio.

Before that he had wielded the baton at the Metropolitan opera at the age of 23 and a few years later opened Carnegie Hall, a shrine of New York music, with a musical festival.

Damrosch for many years directed the New York Symphony orchestra, years during which he composed operatic and other music widely acclaimed by his adopted land.

SEND CHRISTMAS CARD TO DONNA

Utica, N. Y., Dec. 26 (AP)—Little Donna Pronto wants some Christmas cards—even old ones.

Donna's Santa Claus is the mailman, Henry "Dutch" Van Der Lann. The five-year-old child is suffering from a rare spinal condition, spina bifida, that has kept her in bed since birth. In the same bedroom is her 18-month-old brother, Karl, with the same affliction.

To Donna, Christmas cards are the joy of life. She watches for her mailman and his greeting: "Don't worry, little darling. I've got something for you."

And if there is no card in the mail "Dutch" usually supplies one, addressed to Donna at 28 Gilmore Village, Utica.

Almost No Hope
Spina bifida is a congenital malformation in which the spinal column is cleft at the lower portion and membranes project as an elastic swelling. For those who survive with the disease, doctors have almost no hope of cure or improvement.

The Froncos' doctor said of their case: "There is absolutely no future. Of course, there is always hope something will be discovered, but it is terribly slim."

"We don't want sympathy," Mrs. Charles Pronto, Jr., the children's mother, said. "We just want Donna to be happy. You see, she's getting worse every day. I would like to have people send her little cards, just so she will get some mail each day."

Donna has asked for a bicycle—a two-wheeler.

"Maybe next year, darling," her mother said.

COFFEE "PILLS" MAY COME NEXT

Chicago (AP)—"How will you have your coffee this morning, dear? One pill or two?"

"Two, please," says the husband. His wife drops two coffee pills into his cup, then adds hot water.

The pill is an extract of coffee, inside a capsule to keep it fresh. The tasteless, quick-dissolving capsule is an overcoat to guard the coffee against oxygen.

As yet the coffee-in-an-overcoat is just an idea, one of dozens being developed at the Armour Research Foundation of Illinois Institute of Technology. It comes from Erik Nielson, a coffee-loving researcher in the chemistry and chemical engineering department.

Nielson blends his own coffee at home, and makes coffee at the office for fellow workers in the department headed by Clark E. Thorp. This department is an idea factory.

The coffee pills are one of the ideas that passed careful screening and now are undergoing develop-

New Oxford

New Oxford—Robert H. Smith, who has been at Ft. Monmouth, N. J., since his recent entrance into the army, spent the week-end with his wife, formerly Miss Charlotte R. Gladfelter, and his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Curtis J. Smith.

Mrs. George Allamong, who spent a few days at the Warner hospital, is reported greatly improved.

The annual Christmas party of the local chapter, National Council of Catholic Women, was conducted with the meeting Wednesday evening at the parochial hall.

Another Christmas party will be given at the parochial hall next Wednesday for all young people of the Conewago Deanery, comprising Catholic churches of this section.

The Maurice Sullivan farm, R. 2, was recently sold through a York real estate firm to Ellsworth Trone, Elizabethtown.

Every family in the local Catholic parish was presented on Sunday by the pastor with an illustrated Catholic calendar, bearing information about Catholic regulations and observances for each day of the year, and with an appropriate Scripture verse for each day.

The annual Christmas party for the Always Faithful class of the First Lutheran Church school was given Wednesday evening at the church rooms with Mrs. George E. Sheffer and Mrs. Richard Brendle in charge of arrangements.

Another party sponsored by a church group on Wednesday evening was that given by the Men's Brotherhood of St. Paul's Reformed church for children of the Sunday school.

It is believed possible that bagpipes long used in India, were introduced to the west by the Roman emperor Nero.

POPE ASSERTS SAINT PETER'S TOMB IS FOUND

Vatican City, Dec. 26 (AP)—Pope Pius XII announced Saturday that the tomb of St. Peter, Prince of the Apostles and revered by Roman Catholics also as the first pope, has been found in the subterranean grottoes of the Vatican.

The Pontiff reported in his annual Christmas message, broadcast from the Vatican, that a scientific study of discoveries made during excavations beneath St. Peter's Basilica has been completed during the 1950 Holy Year.

These findings, Pope Pius declared, were disclosed to be of the highest importance and will be published soon. "Has the tomb of St. Peter been truly found?" the Pope asked and then gave the answer, "Yes."

Bones had been found near the sepulchre, he declared, but it was not possible to determine whether "these were those of St. Peter."

The Vatican reported last March that 10 years of digging in the long-hidden underground chambers below St. Peter's church yielded archeological evidence supporting the Catholic belief that the Prince of the Apostles was buried on that site.

In June, 1950, the Pontiff consecrated a central altar dedicated to St. Peter and located over the reported site of the apostle's last resting place.

But as early as January, 1949, the Pontiff declared that the tomb of St. Peter "was and is under the cupola of St. Peter's church." He declared then this was demonstrated by archeological findings.

Saturday's statement of the finding of the sepulchre—as proof that the first of the Apostles actually came to Rome and died there—was the most positive yet made by the Pontiff.
